

The New Conrad Miller Trio

Coen Molenaar – Piano
David de Marez Oyens- Double Bass
Enrique Firpi – Drums

“The variety of backgrounds of the three musicians in this new acoustic piano trio brings an original blend of styles and moods.

‘A nice mix of Keith Jarrett, Gonzalo Rubalcaba, Vijay Ayer and Brad Mehldau’

Use of South American rhythms and harmonies combined with traditional Jazz as well as blues and soul result in lyrical, impressionistic compositions. Arrangements are both melancholic and at the same time joyful. Classic harmony and counterpoint coupled with high energy, authentic powerful grooves bring a new color and dimension to the traditional Jazz trio.

Coen and Enrique played for years with American Jazz vocalist Deborah Carter, David and Coen are still touring with the legendary Jan Akkerman. David’s all time interest in the Rhythms of the world locks in easily with Enrique’s rich world of rhythm.

The chance to fulfill a long-desired wish to play together in this setting finally arose when German record label Mochermusic invited the trio to record a CD.
(Release January 2018).

